

American's Fight for Justice

FRED T. KOREMATSU DAY OF CIVIL LIBERTIES AND THE CONSTITUTION

Two Events

Tuesday, January 30, 2018

Santa Clara County Family Justice Center

201 North First Street

San Jose, CA 95113

12 noon – 1:30pm

• Hon. Marilyn Hall Patel (ret.) will be presenting an “Inside the Decision” perspective of her decision in Korematsu v. United States which overturned Fred Korematsu’s wartime conviction for violating the Japanese-American internment and how it relates to current events in politics and the courts.

• Brown Bag Lunch

RSVP is required as space is limited. Please RSVP to rsvp@scscourt.org by January 23, 2018.

Saturday, January 27, 2018

Wesley United Methodist Church –

Fellowship Hall

566 North Fifth Street

San Jose, CA 9512

1pm – 4pm

- Presentation about the Fred T. Korematsu Story
- Keynote Address by Don Tamaki, Civil Rights attorney who represented Fred T. Korematsu in 1983 and also an attorney involved with the amicus brief filed by the children of Fred Korematsu, Gordon Hirabayashi and Minoru Yasui opposing the Trump administration’s Muslim Travel Ban.
- Panel Discussion to follow discussing both the 1983 Korematsu case and the amicus brief opposing the Muslim Travel Ban.

RSVP is highly recommended to secure a seat by emailing publicprograms@jamsj.org or by calling 408-294-3138 by January 20, 2018.

MCLE Credits Available:

January 27, 2018 1.0 CA

January 30, 2018 1.0 CA

Sponsored by

Fred T. Korematsu Institute for Civil Rights and Education / Vietnamese American Roundtable / Asian Pacific American Bar Association – Silicon Valley
Japanese American Museum of San Jose / Asian Law Alliance / Santa Clara County Superior Court Community Outreach Committee