

De Anza College DAY OF REMEMBRANCE

Tuesday, February 20, 2018, 1:30 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Hinson Campus Center, Conference Rooms A and B
De Anza College 21250 Stevens Creek Blvd., Cupertino

“Build the Wall” as immigration policy over the years - 1882 Chinese Exclusion Act and 1924 Exclusion Act against Japanese and others with James “Keep California White” Phelan, U.S. Senator.

On the 76th anniversary of the signing of Executive Order 9066 that marked the beginning of the forced expulsion and mass incarceration of Japanese Americans during World War II, we reflect upon the lessons learned as we continue to face an upsurge in racism, profiling, and attacks on our immigrant communities.

Featuring

Francis Wong - San Francisco State University Asian American Studies - is a jazz musician, educator, youth mentor, humanities non-profit consultant, and community arts activist.

Chizu Omori – freelance journalist and critic - was a young teenager when she and her family were imprisoned in a U.S. concentration camp and was a plaintiff in a class action lawsuit against the U.S. government.

Student Panelists – working with the Japanese American Museum of San Jose and the Californian Civil Liberties Public Education Program of the California State Library.

Funding provided by DASB, Office of Equity, and the California History Center Foundation. Please support our DASB! For more information, contact Tom Izu, 408-864-8986, izutom@deanza.edu